Re: Request for investigation of the Randall W. Klauzer, #2007-2968

Dear Ms. Sieverding:

We received your letter dated September 15, 2007 expressing concerns about Mr. Klauzer's actions as the attorney for Jane Bennett.

On November 21, 2005, I wrote to you and explained that Mr. Klauzer's representation and advocacy on behalf of Jane and Kevin Bennett was not unethical. In that letter, I explained that you did "not provide objective facts that demonstrate any criminal or ethical misconduct" by Mr. Klauzer. Your recent letter alleges that Mr. Klauzer perpetrated a fraud on the court by asserting that you "molested Jane Bennett." In order to ascertain whether there is any merit to this allegation, we need something more than your assertion that it took place. Please provide supporting documentation to demonstrate the statement(s) Mr. Klauzer made about you, and provide any documentation available to demonstrate that the statement made by Mr. Klauzer was fraudulent or otherwise improper.

If we do not receive anything further from you within twenty (20) days of the date of this letter, no further action will be taken on your request by our office.

Sincerely,

Matthew A. Samuelson
Assistant Regulation Counsel
