

COLORADO COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL DISCIPLINE

899 Logan Street, Suite 307
Denver, Colorado 80203
(303) 894-2110

April 12, 2006

CONFIDENTIAL

Dear [REDACTED]:

This letter confirms receipt of your revised letter of complaint, dated March 31, 2006, which provides additional information to your earlier letters to me of February 6, 2006, and March 10, 2006, along with a compact diskette. This will also confirm our telephone conversation of March 28, 2006.

Please be advised that my computer is not able to download the documents that you make reference to in your letter. Therefore, I am returning all of this information you so that you might prepare a complete set of documents to support your letter.

Again, as we have discussed, the Commission on Judicial Discipline reviews complaints about ethical conduct by state judges. However, because it is not a court, it does not have any authority to review legal or factual aspects of a person's case. It also does not have the authority to review the rulings, orders or decisions that a judge may make when presiding over a person's case. All of those matters can be reviewed only through the appellate process, for which you should seek legal advice.

Please be reminded that this matter is strictly confidential pursuant to Article VI, Section 23(3)(g), Colorado Constitution, and sections 24-72-401 and 402, Colorado Revised Statutes.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Wehmhoefer
Executive Director and General Counsel
RAW/
