APPELLANT’S MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME WITHIN WHICH TO SUBMIT OPENING BRIEF ON APPEAL

The appellant, above named, moves this honorable court for an Order granting him an extension of time of thirty (30) days within which to submit his Opening Brief. As grounds therefor, Appellant states as follows:

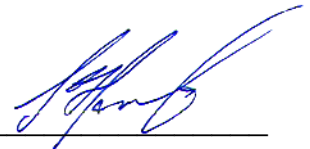

1. Pursuant to this Court’s Briefing Schedule and the provisions of C.A.R. 31(a), the Appellant’s Opening Brief on Appeal is due in this Court on or before June 18th 2007.
2. The undersigned’s obligations have resulted in insufficient time within which to properly prepare the Appellant’s Opening Brief.

3. The undersigned has been diligently preparing for a civil trial matter in another state, which is set to commence later this month and, which has consumed a vast amount of resources, leaving little time to prepare Appellant's Opening Brief.

4. An extension of time of thirty (30) days will result in a filing deadline of July 18th 2007, which will not significantly delay these appellate proceedings and will not result in prejudice to the Appellee. The additional time will, however, enable the Appellant to properly prepare and submit his Opening Brief.

WHEREFORE, the Appellant prays for an Order granting an additional thirty (30) days within which to submit his Opening Brief on Appeal.

Respectfully submitted,

Appellant, Sean Harrington
