Div. O / Magistrate Martinez

AMENDED MOTION FOR PUNITIVE CONTEMPT IN RE MADELINE WILSON

COMES NOW, the Respondent, Sean L. Harrington, for the purpose of filing this Amended Motion for Punitive Contempt in re Madeline Wilson and, in support thereof, states:

1. On November 26, 2008 father filed a Verified Motion for Punitive Contempt, which he incorporates herein by reference. The Motion was docketed December 10, 2008.
2. On December 19, 2009, Magistrate Martinez denied the Motion with a minute entry, stating, "no court order of record on about Nov., 2006." The notation was made in the Court's Eclipse/ICON system, but no order was signed or mailed.
3. A typographical error appears in Paragraph 1 of father's Verified Motion, which resulted in the magistrate's decision. Father wrote:

On or about November 5, 2001, a stipulated agreement ("Agreement") was entered into between three individuals: Sean L. Harrington, Christy C. Ryan and Madeline Wilson-Hollis. Two of these persons are proper parties to this case; one is not. The Agreement was adopted by this Court and entered as an Order on November 1, 2006. [Emphasis added]

4. Paragraph 2 of father's original Motion states, "The November 6, 2001 order, at ¶ 1.14, requires mother to inform father of any changes of business or residential address or telephone number . . ." [emphasis added]

5. There is no court order of record on November, 2006 as Magistrate Martinez correctly noted. The date of the Order in question is November 5, 2001, ICON Event ID No. 218.
