PLAINTIFF’S RESPONSE TO COURT ORDER DATED 28 SEPTEMBER 2006

COMES NOW, Plaintiff, Sean Harrington, for the purpose of responding to this Court’s Order dated this same day::

1. Plaintiff’s Notice of Appeal states, in pertinent part, as follows:

Plaintiff will tender a docketing statement and docketing fee within the next ten (10) days.

2. In accordance with the declaration, hereinabove, the undersigned has mailed a personal check in the amount of $450.00 by U.S. Mail, first class, postage pre-paid for the “docket fee” on September 27th 2006.

3. In accordance with the declaration, hereinabove, the undersigned has separately mailed a personal check in the amount of $5 by U.S. Mail, first class, postage pre-paid for the "filing fee" on September 28th 2006.
4. Assuming that the district clerk does not return the first check upon noticing that the filing fee is missing, this Court's September 28th 2006 Order will be discharged upon receipt of the second check.
5. After careful consideration, the undersigned has elected not to submit a Section 1915 application.
